

“Repentance isn’t promising to do something about our sin. It's admitting we can't do anything about our sin.”

“The intention not to sin is not the same as the power not to sin.”

“Every act of repentance depends upon an act of redemption. My sin is resolved when I am cleansed of it, only by my dependence upon the cross.”

“There is a forgiveness which is solely for my benefit.”

“There is a forgiveness which is solely for my offender's benefit.”

“There are two worlds of difference between forgiving and trusting my offender.”

“I must seek reconciliation, not just conflict resolution.”
